SUBJECT: Interim Guidance Regarding the Iran Agreements

A White House/State Department Task Force has developed the following statements on the Iran agreements and suggests that these statements be used should any of you be asked about the Administration's position on the matter.

1. The agreements negotiated by the Carter Administration and the related Executive Orders issued by it are detailed and complicated. We have begun an indepth review.
2. This Administration fully intends to carry out the objectives of these agreements in accordance with law.
3. It must be recognized, however, that the implementation of these agreements will be complex and time-consuming and that good faith actions will be required on the part of the parties concerned as well as a cooperative spirit on the part of the Iranians.
